

Plasters of Maridha pasted with milk curd and applied in the manner of a cnllyrium cures all forms of Timira. A Ghritam ;,,joked with the admixture of a paste and decoction of Tri-phab tnd milk, and taken at the evening, speedily cures all forms of Timira. Pills made of Pippali, Draksha, iron-powers and rocksalt, pasted with the expressed juice of Bimngaraja, prove efficacious in haemorrhoids, cataract, urticaria and ocular affections. Pills made of Trikatu, Triphala, xock-salt, Manah-shila Ketakam, Shankhanabhi, Jati flowers, Nimva, Rasfn}anam and Bhringaraja, pasted together with milk, honey and clarified butter, prove curative in all forms of ocular affections. Eranda-roots or Muchukunda flowers, pasted with milk or Kanjikam, and applied as plasters over the forehead, instantly cure headache. A medicinal oil cooked iri combination with Shatanga, Eranda-roots, Ugra, Chakra, and Vyaghri, each weighing a Pala weight, and used as an errhiuc,, proves curative in Timira, in diseases of the deranged Vayu and Kaphain, and in diseases of super-clavicular regions. A compound of Vishvam, Pippali and rock-salt, taken with salt and treacle, proves curative in Bhuja-stambha (Ebb's paralyais ?) and diseases of the super-clavicular regions. Errhines should be freely employed in combating all forms of Suryavarta (a type_kof Cephalagia)- A decoction of the drugs of the Dashamula-group mixed'with rock-salt and clarified butter should be employed as an errhine in Suryavartam, A woman suffering from an attack of leucorrhoea of the Vataja type should take a compound of Sauvarchala salt, Ajaji, Madhukarn, and Nilotpalam, pasted together with milk-curd, and sweetened with honey. In the Pittaja form of leucorrhoea the expressed juice of Vfsaka, or Guduchi or Amalaka seeds pasted with water and sweetened with honey and sugar should be administered. For* the alleviation of Pandu type of leucorrhoea a Wdman should take the expressed juice of Amalakam, and honey, or that of the Karpisa roots in combination with the washings of rice